>Evening Star Quilter's Guild

Dear Ladies of the Evening Star Quilter's Guild,

"September 1976 to September 2012"

We are celebrating "25" amazing years honoring our mission to promote interest and knowledge in the area of quilt making, to promote appreciation of the art form, to educate people in all aspects of quilting and to engage in charitable projects through quilt making.

Twenty five years ago the first meeting of the newly formed Evening Star Quilter's Guild was held at the Belvidere American Legion Post, Greenwich Street, Belvidere, New Jersey. Approximately 30 people attended, officers were elected, and the By-Laws of the National Quilting Association were voted on and adopted until such time as specific By-Laws could be drawn up for the local organization. It was also decided to apply for membership as a chapter of the National Quilting Association.

We look forward to gathering at the September 11th meeting to celebrate and enjoy special refreshments with our founding members; Jane Schreffler, Sharon Rehrig and Nellie Rinehart.

QUILTS UNCOVERED

The History of Quilting in America

Judy Grow will present a lecture and trunk show entitled, "Quilts Uncovered", which explores the history of quilts in America with emphasis on the evolving technology that enabled the craft and art of quilting. Her lecture is illustrated with at least 20 or more historic quilts from her collection.

Judy will be our program speaker
At the ESQG meeting on October 9, 2012.

A Special Note.....

Sign up for our workshops early! And please be ready to pay as you register.
