Our Guild in Action... Victorian Days - 2013

When Victorian Days began our guild was asked to promote the art of quilting with a free event space. We have always enjoyed this weekend event and look forward to participating each year. What a beautiful day it was for showing off our quilts while enjoying each other's company along with everyone who visited our display. Many, many thanks to all members who participated. It was a perfect weekend for Victorian Days and showing off what we do as quilters!

Lorraine Cline, Minerva Kennedy, Barbara Contini (the committee) provided so much help all around and were looking good, too. Nancy Geiger stood both days and greeted everyone, never sitting down. Fran Visicaro in her beautiful hat, spoke with visitors while selling raffle tickets. Carol Howell wore her mother's dress with the crocheted collar and greeted everyone who came by. Peggy Schaedel helped dismantle all the displays. Penny Smith handled the rush of raffle ticket sales which were very successful both days with the help of Sharon Roehrig. This year will be my last and I dearly hope someone will step in and enjoy this event as much as I did.
